LARGE PART OF POOL CROP SOLD

President Jim Stone Says Price
"Very Satisfactory" But
Withholds Details Now

Lexington, Ky., Feb. 6—A large portion of the approximately 200,000,000 pounds of burley tobacco controlled by the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association has been sold "at very satisfactory prices," and prospects are bright for the early sale of the remainder, James C. Stone, president and general manager, announced Saturday.

Mr. Stone declined to state how much has been sold or at what prices, saying that he was "not able to make an intelligent report" at that time on the quantity, prices, or the buyers.

The leaf thus far sold has been to several buyers, Mr. Stone said, and much of it was in winter order. "We are very optimistic over prospects for the sale of the entire crop soon, with most of it in winter order," Mr. Stone said. Winter order is tobacco in loose leaf form. Sale in winter order means that the drying process is in the hands of the buyer.

Liggett & Myers A Buyer

Twenty million pounds of the pooled tobacco has been sold for an average of well between 20 and 30 cents a pound to the Liggett and Myers Company, according to well founded reports Saturday.

Ralph M. Barker, director of warehouses for the co-operative association, said Saturday that the Liggett and Myers Company was one of the purchasers, but declined to state the amount bought or the figure paid.

James Pryor, local manager for Liggett and Myers, declined to make a statement with reference to the report, which came originally from one of the officials of the pool.

Approximately one million pounds of pooled leaf already has been redried by the plants under contract to the association, according to a report of Dr. S. H. Halley, in charge of this department. The leaf is stored in hogheads in Lexington warehouses under control of the association.

Resume Deliveries Monday

Greatly heartened and encouraged by the advances made to the growers throughout the burley district by the association, members of that organization will resume Monday the delivery of their crops to the receiving plants. No estimate was obtainable as to the amount of tobacco delivered since the warehouses opened last Monday, nor was it possible to learn what amount of money had been advanced to the growers.

"That's what this association was organized for," Mr. Stone said, "to sell tobacco, and we're selling it, and are going to sell still more of it. The prices we received for what we have sold have been entirely satisfactory to the officials of the association and feel quite sure, will be satisfactory to the growers who are members of the association."

"One of the most remarkable features connected with the opening of our floors to receive the association tobacco has been the fact that in almost every instance the amount paid our members has been higher than the entire crop last year, and that in many instances the advance paid to our members for a half crop pledged to the association has been as much or nearly as much as the other half, not pledged, sold for on the independent loose leaf floors.

"The members of the association are sitting steady in the boat and they are happy and contented with the present situation and without fear as to the future. I agree with Ralph Barker in his statement that the growers will never go back to the old system of marketing."

Landlords Must Control Crops

"There seems to be some misunderstanding as to the meaning of the statement made recently that landlords would be presumed to control the crops grown on their land in 1922 and thereafter," said Chief of the Field Service Division Joseph Passonneau Saturday, when asked in regard to just what effect the application of that clause of the marketing contract would have on control of tobacco grown for the next five years on the lands of members of

SIGNING OF TREATIES ENDS CONFERENCE

(By Associated Press)

Washington, Feb. 6—The history-making conference on limitation of armament and Far Eastern questions ended today with the signing of treaties and a farewell address by President Harding, with its work characterized by Harding as the first deliberate and effective expression of the great powers in the consciousness of peace and of war's utter futility. The great conference went into the niche of history to await judgments and developments of the future.

In the great assembly hall, the delegates of nine nations meanwhile marched in turn to the table and affixed their signatures to the treaties and agreements which are all parts of the structure built to lift from a war-torn world the burden of excessive naval agreement, promote peace in the Pacific, give a new bill of rights to China and remove from the Far East particularly the clouds of war. As each delegation fixed its signature, the great audience applauded long and loudly. The treaty was signed in this order: United States, Great Britain, France, Italy, Japan, Belgium, The Netherlands, China and Portugal. At the conclusion of the ceremony of signing President Harding delivered his address formally closing the conference.

In Jessamine county R. J. Prather sold a tract of land, 19 acres adjoining Wilmore, last week, to J. T. Moore, of North Carolina, for $300 per acre. Possession to be given at once. Terms cash.

Good Sale In Clark

At the sale of John W. Ballard at his place on the Red River in Clark county milk cows sold for $20 to $70; one 4-year-old horse brought $100; 3 suckling calves went at $13.50 each; 5 head of 700 pound cattle brought $47 each; 3 yearling steers sold for $36 a head and 8 yearling heifers went at $30 each.

"Tenants who belong to the association, of course," he said, "should be in the same position in the future as they are this year, insofar as their relationship to the association is concerned."

Nothing has been done to lessen the interest of loyal tenant members in the organization. But landlords belonging to the association cannot legally rent land to non-members upon a crop sharing basis.

"I believe it would be a good policy for landlords to refuse to rent land to tenants who are unwilling to sign the association contract, but in the event that this cannot be avoided, it will be legally necessary for them to make such contracts with their tenants as to provide for the control and sale of the tobacco remaining absolutely in the hands of the landlord."

"To avoid any possible difficulty, however, it will be much more preferable for landlords to insist upon having all their tenants join the association. In short, so far as the association is concerned, its relationship with tenant members will always be on a par to its relationship with landlord members, but in the future landlords should guard against making contracts with their tenants which is any way can be construed as being in opposition to their contract with the association, which provides that all of the tobacco they control, directly or indirectly, must move through association channels."

CARDINAL RATTI IS ELECTED POPE

Archbishop of Milan Succeeds Benedict XV After Several Days' Balloting

(By Associated Press)

Rome, Feb. 6—Cardinal Achille Ratti, Archbishop of Milan, was proclaimed elected Pope in succession to the late Benedict XV this morning. He has taken the name of Pius XI.

As soon as the two-thirds vote was verified the new Pope was escorted to the ante-room within the Sistine Chapel where he discarded his Cardinal robes and donned the vestments of his new office. A little later he ascended the throne where the Cardinals made the first act of adoration. The ceremony concluded, the Pontiff appeared on the balcony of St. Peter's church, where he bestowed upon the multitude his first public benediction. He then returned to the Vatican virtually to be a prisoner until his death.

Cardinal O'Connell, Archbishop of Boston, arrived an hour after the Pope was elected.

Cardinal Achille Ratti, Archbishop of Milan, was for several years Papal Nuncio in Poland, where his discharge of important ecclesiastical functions when the Polish question became acute, earned for him the esteem of Benedict XV and the gratitude of Vatican authorities. It was because of this service that the red hat was conferred upon him June 16, 1921, when a similar honor was bestowed on Cardinal Laurenti.

The new Pope was born in Dehino, Italy, March 31, 1857.

For many years was librarian of Ambrosian Library and archivist at Milan. Later he became librarian of the Vatican. In this position he remained until the new republic of Poland established official diplomatic relations with the Vatican at which time he was appointed archbishop and was assigned to Poland as the representative of the Holy See.

That country was then torn with the estrangements from religion brought about by the Communist propaganda from Soviet Russia and Archbishop Ratti counteracted the spread of radicalism. He also won the esteem of Polish Catholics by his efforts in behalf of destitute children orphaned by the war.

Cardinal Ratti as the Archbishop of Milan presides over one of the most important archdioceses in Italy. The city being a great industrial center, one of its main requirements is that the Cardinal shall possess a thorough knowledge of political and social problems. He is big physically and is reported to have liberal tendencies.

Biggest Raid Yet By Officers

Sheriff Deatherage and Posse Destroy Fourteen Moonshine Stills and 4,000 Gallons of Mash

(By Associated Press)

Fourteen moonshine stills, 4,000 gallons of mash, one alleged moonshiner and a number of suspects was the crop gathered in Madison and the edge of Jackson county early Monday in one of the biggest raids engineered in this section since prohibition went into effect.

A force of about 10 or 12 officers, five of them Federal dry raiders, and all under the leadership of Sheriff Elmer Deatherage, spread terror among the shiners from Bobtown to Bear hollow and Big Hill during the early hours. With Sheriff Deatherage were his regular deputies, Franklin Deatherage, Dick Mobley and Bob Davis. He swore in as special deputies Bob Telford, Billy Martin and a number of other young men of town. Chief of Police Watkins, of Berea, joined the party, and Sheriff Lainhart, of Jackson county, with several of his men strengthened them also. There were five federal prohibition officers in charge of Lucien A. Burnam, of this city, the others being Agent White, Beckner, Correll and Miller.

The big party divided up in two squads and made a clean sweep of a wide section of territory. A quantity of liquor was found and destroyed, but no still was found actually in operation, so far as learned. One negro suspect was taken in charge. A still was found in his barn and the federal men set fire to the whole "sue-bang" and burned the barn and contents. The other stills were burned and big bonfires testified to the thoroughness with which the officers cleaned up things. They left Richmond at 4 o'clock Monday morning and got back about 3 in the afternoon, covered with mud and very tired.

Another Big Moonshine Raid In Estill County

(By Associated Press)

Irvine, Feb. 6—Another raid was carried out Thursday by Irvine police. This time two stills were raided on the Prewitt and Goff lease on Miller's Creek, and in addition to the stills, destroyed twelve fermenters. The raiders arrested the following who it is claimed, were found operating the still: Olive O'Hara, G. T. Wiseman, Leonard Arnold, E. L. Thacker. The raid was headed by Chief of Police Russ Sizer, and he had with him Jess Hamilton, Green Covey, George Brinegar and James Fugate.

LEGION TO VOTE ON STATE BONUS TONIGHT

Official Ballot Received Here and Form Is Criticized By Some Legionnaires

(By Associated Press)

Members of Jesse M. Dykes Post of the American Legion will vote their sentiment as to the legislature of Kentucky giving them a bonus at a called meeting tonight. Commander Charles George has issued the call. He has received official ballots from state headquarters. Mr. George says that many of the members of the local post are inclined to censure the form in which the ballots are made out, as they think that the fourth question to be voted on on the ballot is drawn in an ambiguous way that may cause some confusion when the members prepare to vote. The official ballot, which the boys will vote on, reads as follows:

"1. Do you favor asking the General Assembly of Kentucky to provide for a cash bonus to able bodied ex-service persons? YES

"2. Do you favor Federal legislation providing a bonus. YES

"3. Do you favor restricting benefits of legislation to disabled men?

"4. Do you favor the following resolution:

"Resolved, That the American Legion, standing for principles and the just right of ex-service persons, realizing that the National Government is about to recognize its obligations to them by passing the American Legion Adjusted Compensation Bill, and that our state is in dire stress and suffering from excessive burdens and taxation, and not only owes no duty to compensate ex-service persons, but is unable to pay anything to ex-service persons as a gratuity, and for these reasons it refuses to ask the General Assembly of Kentucky to pass a law providing a cash gift to able bodied ex-service persons? YES

"5. Questions submitted by order of the State Executive Committee.

EMMET O'NEAL, Department Commander

"Instructions: Use pencil in marking Ballot.

"Each member of the Legion in good standing with his current dues paid up shall be entitled to one vote.

"Each ballot shall be signed on the back by the member and his signature shall be witnessed by the Post Adjutant and cast by the member in the presence of the Post Adjutant and transmitted by mail to the Department Adjutant.

"The vote will be counted and verified by the Post Adjutant to the Department Adjutant."

A Good Bill

The Daily Register is heartily in sympathy with the movement at Frankfort to secure passage of a bill giving county and police courts final jurisdiction in petty liquor violation cases. As pointed out effectively in resolutions adopted by the local Welfare League, delays between examining trials and final circuit court action often nullify the whole proceedings and many escape who could easily have been convicted in the lower tribunals. It is understood that the Commonwealth Attorneys are fighting the bill. Well, the legislature ought to pass a bill putting these officials on a straight salary anyway, and not make them dependent for their remuneration upon fees obtained through con-

NO OPPOSITION TO GILBERT, SAYS TIMES

Friends here of Congressman Ralph Gilbert will be pleased to know that indications are that he will have no opposition for renomination at the hands of the Democratic party this year. At least, Billy Kaltenbacher says so in the Louisville Times, and Kaltenbacher usually knows what he's talking about when it comes to political prognosticating. He said Saturday:

Judge Ralph Gilbert, Congressman of the Eighth District, who was called to his home in Shively to look after some matters in the Circuit Court, spent a day in Louisville. Mr. Gilbert is very hopeful of the political future as it affects the Democratic party nationally and he looks for a sweeping reversal of the Harding administration at the polls in the coming congressional elections. Mr. Gilbert is assured of renomination without opposition.

MOTHER! YOUR CHILD
May Be Made Strong and Robust
By SUSTO—Nutritive Tonic
Tablets

Every mother who has a child, thin, delicate and ailing, will be interested in the report of the Nutritional Expert of one of America's greatest Medical Colleges, in regard to SUSTO, a Nutritive Tonic Food Tablet, which has been tested and approved at that college. After a test extending over many months, here is what he says:

"In every instance where undernourished infants and children were given SUSTO, important body-weight increases were recorded. A notable case is that of a boy of eleven who had been underweight for three or four years in spite of the best medical and dietary treatment. The feeding of SUSTO produced a gain of six pounds.

"SUSTO, as improved by us, is an excellent nutritive tonic and growth-promoting therapeutic agent which should prove useful to all who wish to put on weight, to under-nourished children and adults, and to men, women and children in general, who show signs of a run-down system."

It will pay every mother who has a delicate, weak, ailing, underweight child to try SUSTO also any person who is under weight, run down, nervous or anemic.

The reason SUSTO is producing such marvelous results is because it contains in concentrated form the essential strengthening, life-giving elements of rice, yeast, eggs and milk, together with beef protein, nuclein and iron, which are lacking in our daily food.

The reliability of SUSTO is guaranteed by the highest of authority.

WESTERN BASKETEER'S LEG IS BROKEN

Victory of Eastern Over Bowling
Green Rival Marred By Unfortunate Accident

Eastern's basketball team avenged last fall's football defeat at the hands of Western State Normal when it defeated Western's basketball team at the Madison gym Saturday night by a score of 26 to 15. The floor of the gym has recently been oiled and slowed the game up a great deal as the athletes found it hard to secure a firm footing. This slipping caused a collision between Captain Jones of Western and Mainous, which resulted in Jones' leg being broken above the ankle. He is in a local hospital and is reported to be doing nicely.

Eastern took the lead on the start with a field goal. Western tied the score soon after, but then the locals started on their march toward victory and were never headed. They showed that they were class over Western as the game progressed. The game was not featured with as many fast plays as usual, because of the slick floor. In spite of this, the locals showed some high-class basketball in spots. Byrd started the game with a field goal. As soon as Eastern became accustomed to the floor she rolled up a score that was never in danger of being overcome. Eastern was minus the services of Earl Combs, star guard and captain. He sustained several injuries in the early part of the season and has been forced to abandon basketball, so as to be in tip-top shape by the 12th of March. This is when he goes south with the Louisville Colonels to try for a position on their baseball team. The Eastern fans will miss his sterling playing but wish him the best of luck on his southern trip.

Byrd again led Eastern in the scoring with ten points. He probably would have added more to this number but was removed from the game toward the last to give a sub a chance. He made two nice long shots for baskets and passed well. Clark ran him a close second with nine.

and seemed to be recovering his former style of playing which has been lacking in the last two games. Stephenson played great ball at center for Eastern. He scored seven points for Coach Hembree's men besides playing a fine defensive game. Mainous and Hall at guards held the enemy in check throughout the time they were in the game. Mainous followed up many shots and held his man to very few points. Hall came in for his share of the good work as well as Critcher who substituted for him toward the last. Coach Hembree also deserves a great deal of credit for the victory over Eastern's ancient rivals. He has been putting forth all his efforts to bring victory to Eastern in this battle. As a former student of Eastern he made a wonderful record for the institution in athletics. He has proved nothing but a success since concluding here, having developed many winning teams since he took the reins dropped by Coach McCoy. He will also try hard to round the boys into condition for the Transylvania battle Saturday. On the Eastern team which was beaten by Transylvania in the last meeting between these two schools at basketball, Hembree played a big hand. He is therefore out for revenge and will not fall far short of his aim.

Eastern—Byrd, (10) rf; Clark, (9) lt; Stephenson (7) c; Hall, rg; Mainous, lg.

FELT LIKE HER NERVES WOULD SNAP IN TWO

Ashland Woman Was On Verge of a Complete Breakdown When She Began Taking Tanlac.

Eight Years of Dyspepsia Overcome and She Has Never Felt Better In Her Life, Declares Mrs. Craig.

"I like to talk about Tanlac. It has helped me and I know it will help others," said Mrs. Benliah Craig, Apt. 3, 111 Fifteenth street, Ashland, Ky.

"I had a bad form of stomach trouble for eight years and had almost given up hope of getting relief. My liver was sluggish, too, and I had awful nervous attacks and felt that my nerves would snap in two. I was on the verge of a breakdown when I began taking Tanlac, but in a short time it had me feeling like a different person.

"I can never remember when I was in better health than I am right now, nor could I ask to feel any better than I do now."

Tanlac is sold in Richmond by Stockton and Son, and leading druggists.

SWIFT'S PRODUCE REVIEW

Colder weather throughout the western producing sections has caused some decrease in the deliveries of cream, resulting in higher prices for butterfat.

Lighter production and keen demand have caused an advance in the price of fresh eggs, but as the season advances and larger receipts are available, more moderate prices are likely to prevail. Poultry receipts, while somewhat lighter, are ample for current use and prices show but little change.

members in both branches and a demand in the Senate to either uphold the reports or do away with committees. The road bond issue and the soldier bonus were read into the calendar in the House after considerable discussion.

The first political tilt of the session occurred when the no-emblem bill came up for passage in the Senate. The measure, intended for Louisville only, would remove the log cabins, roosters and other emblems from the ballot in municipal elections. Republicans lined up solidly against the bill, declaring that it was aimed at the negro voters and that hundreds would be disfranchised. The democratic members voted solidly for the measure and it went through 19 to 15. The bill is expected to go through the House sometime this week, and be ready for the governor's signature or veto before next week.

The Senate passed the bill of Senator H. P. Atwood eliminating grade crossings from public highways with but little difficulty. Another bill by the same Senator affecting a reorganization of the graded school districts also passed.

One of the bills passed in the House prohibits persons dressed in bathing suits from going about the streets in villages which have no police protection. The vote was 66 to 20.

Among the bills which are in line for consideration in the House during the present week are:

D. A. O'Donovan's bill asking for a bond issue of $10,000,000 for a soldier bonus.

S. R. Powell's bill allowing jurors $8 a day.

The bill of J. B. Whicker amending the dog law.

W. G. Wheeler's measure providing that auto fees collected in each county remain in the county to be used in road building.

The bill of Lee Clark providing a $1 school poll tax on males over 21 years of age.

D. A. O'Donovan's bill requiring railroads to build sheds at all terminals.

W. T. Watkins' bill for regulation of voting of illiterates, blind and disabled voters.

Brodie Payne's bill to make Confederate pensions $15 and include those compelled to take of allegiance.

H. G. Myers' bill to submit $50,000 road bond issue to the vote of the people.

H. J. Meyers' bill to forbid use of daylight saving time.

G. L. Drury's bill to allow courts to grant declaratory judgments.

Mary Elliott Flanery's bill to provide for extension of boundaries of fourth class city school districts.

E. L. Frazier's bill to create Kentucky Disabled ex-Service Men's Board.

E. A. Gullion's bill to provide for boards of education to levy school tax in fourth class cities.

H. J. Meyers' bill to provide for acting county judge.

James Park's bill to empower university and normal schools to condemn land.

W. M. Boling's bill to provide for election of county superintendents.

C. A. Chandler's bill to prohibit the teaching of evolution in any school or college or institution of learning maintained in whole or in part by the state.

C. D. Minor's bill to provide for the election of sub-district trustees in county rural districts and defining their duties.

The following are important bills which will likely be up for consideration in the Senate:

Griffin Kelley's bill to provide for the election of county school superintendents by a vote of the people.

S. L. Marshall's bill to provide for an additional commissioner of the Court of Appeals.

J. D. Whitaker's bill to regulate the practice of medicine, osteopathy and chiropractic.

H. M. Brock's bill to define qualifications of members of the State Board of Charities and Corrections, wardens of the state reformatories, superintendents of state hospitals and employees.
